The person I admire

I'm going to write about an Internet star. His name is Philza, also known as Ph1lzA Minecraft. He is a twitch star who plays Minecraft. He plays on a Minecraft server called Dream SMP. He does role-plays on the server other twitch streamers such as Ranboo Live, Tommyinit, Tubbo and Niki Nihachu.

Philza is a thirty-three years old man. He has blonde hair and a beard. He is married to Kristen, also known as Mumza. Phil is also known as Dadza. Phil is around 5 feet and 9 inches (about 176 cm) tall.

You might be wondering why they are Mumza and Dadza. That's because they are a couple of parental figures to the fans. Philza always takes care of them in videos as if they were his children.

In the Dream SMP, when they roleplay, it's called lore, and in the lore, the family tree is complicated. For Philza, He has three sons, Tommyinit, Wilbur Soot and Techno Blade. He also has a grandson called Fundy. He is a fox. His father is Wilbur and his mom is Sally the salmon. This is what I mean by complicated. Wilbur, a human, and salmon have a fox child. If that's too complicated for you, then I'd suggest you not to search up 'DSMP family tree'. While Mumza in the Dream SMP is the goodness of Death.

I like Phil a lot. He is a great person. I sometimes feel bad for him having to take care of the chaotic children. But most importantly, he is one of the people who inspires me.
