My Summer Holiday

My daddy is always busy for work. He goes back home later at night. Yesterday was his birthday. Luckily, he didn't go to work. My brother and I planned some activities for him.

Daddy likes cycling very much. On that day, my brother and I got up early. We went cycling with daddy. We rode for a long time. We were tired but happy. We didn't go outdoors since the summer holiday started because there was the outbreak of the virus.

After that, we went back home to have lunch and played board games with daddy. Daddy was very tired and he slept in the afternoon. At that time, we decorated our home because we held a small birthday party for daddy at night. We put some balloons. We drew some pictures. I phoned mummy and reminded her to buy a chocolate birthday cake. When, daddy woke up, he said, "The decoration is very beautiful, well done."

We invited my uncle and aunt. We had dinner together. Then, my brother and I gave daddy a handmade birthday card. We sang birthday songs and ate the birthday cake. Daddy liked the cake very much. My brother and I had a dancing show for daddy. We practiced hardly the days before his birthday. All of them said it was a good show. After the show, we played until night.

I love my daddy very much. He teaches me a lot of things. I am very thankful for his love and care.

On my birthday, mum and my dad bring me to the Mega Box. First we go to a Japanese restaurant to have lunch. I order a salmon noodles. This is the first time I try it. First I put noodles in the water. The water keeps moving round and round, then we use the chopsticks to pick them up and eat. It is very funny and yummy.

Next we go to the toy shop "ToysRus" to buy my birthday present. I choose LEGO toys because I think LEGO is the best toy in the whole world.

After buying the toys, mum buys a chocolate cake for me. It is delicious. I am happy today because my mum, my dad and my sister celebrate my birthday together. I feel lucky and wonderful!

My Summer Holiday

Today is my birthday. When I woke up in the morning, I heard someone saying happy birthday to me. It was my mom! She gave me a birthday present. I thanked her. Then I saw my dad in the kitchen. He was making a birthday cake. He put a lot of chocolate in the cake. I like eating chocolate very much.

After eating the breakfast, I helped mom put up some balloons in the living room. After that, my birthday cake was baked and it looked good. Dad put candles on the cake and turned off the lights. Dad and mom sang "Happy Birthday" song to me. I was so happy. My dad also gave me a birthday present and I thanked him. We ate the birthday cake happily. It was so yummy.

In the evening, I opened the birthday presents. They were my favourite Elsa doll and a Lego house. I love them very much. I always play with the Elsa doll and the Lego house. Today is a happy day. I hope I have a happy birthday celebration like this next year.

Today, my cousin Estelle came to my home because her parents had to go out for business. She is only two and a half years old, she is smart and lovely. So, my sister Emily and I helped to take care of her.

Estelle loves to imitate me and my sister. When I played the piano, she shakes her head with rhythm and played they keys with me. They we played basketball, she also bounced it well.

In the evening, my mother made a cake cousin Estelle enjoys eating it very much. I was very glad to see Estelle's happy face.

In the end, Estelle was unwilling to leave us. She said, "I'll be back soon!"

My Summer Holiday

Hi, I am Kobi Ha. I will share my special day in the summer holiday. I can play TV games every weekends! In fact, one of the weekend is my special day. I think, this is my worst holiday ever.

This is my worst holiday. I cannot travel to another country. I need to stay at home and I cannot play with my friends and cousins. So, I only can do homework, watch TV and read books at home. It is so boring. It is because of the Covid-19.

At the special weekend, I make a Yakult cheese cake. It is very tasty. I get an e-book called Kindle. I can read books without buying real books. On the same day, I also get a letter from my teacher. I feel touching on the real letter.

I wish it could be better next year. I wish I can do what I lose. Like as to go to travel, play with my friends and swimming ...etc. At last, I wish my next summer holiday will be happier.

On 12th July 2020, I saw a movie with mommy, daddy and my little sister. We went to MCL Cinemas Telford to see Sumikkogurashi: Good To Be In The Corner.

When I went into the cinema, I saw some seats were blocked by tapes. So, we had to sit two by two. I sit with my little sister.

The movie was about a group of Sumikkogurashi went to a café. They found a book but they were sucked into the book suddenly. Into world of the book, they met a lonely little grey chicken. He did not know where his home was. So, the Sumikko friends decided to help their new friend. In the end, the Sumikko friends wanted the new friend could go to the real world with them. However, the little grey chicken could not go with them because he belonged to the world of the book.

I like this movie because it teaches me that friendship is very important. Also, I like the little grey chicken because it tells me we are so lucky that we have our homes and families.

One day, I visited my Aunt Sophia's place which is located at Tseung Kwan O. They have a lovely house with the private swimming pool.

First, I swam with my cousins, and went diving with them.

After that, we felt tired, so we took a rest at to the pool side.

Later, Aunt Sophia called us to have lunch, she prepared delicious and mouth-watering dishes for us and we relished every bite of food.

In the end, my mom came to pick me up.

I said thank you to Aunt Sophia and my cousins. I had a wonderful time spending with them.

My Summer Holiday

During this summer holiday, I went to Sharp Island in Sai Kung with my family.

At first, we packed our lunch box and went to Sai Kung by minibus. Then we took a boat to Sharp Island. When we arrived at the Pier, we saw a big beach which was full of white sand. We made sandcastles and swam in the sea.

Also, when we walked near the sea, we saw many beautiful sea creatures like sea cucumbers, sea stars, hermit crabs, sea conchs, sea urchins, shells and clams.

Finally, it was an unforgettable journey for me!
