One Day at the Park

It is a sunny Friday. My grandparents take me to Kowloon Park after school. It is in Tsim Sha Tsui. We go there by MTR.

It is a really huge park. I like playing on the slides and monkey bars at children's playground. I climb up and down the jungle gym. I also play football at the mini-soccer pitch. There is a bird lake where the flamingos live. We stroll around the lake to watch the birds. The fountains are amazing. Playing hide-and-seek in the maze garden is funny.

I have a wonderful day.

Last Sunday afternoon, my family and I went to Po Hong Park. It was cloudy.

It was crowded in the park. I played on the slide and spring rider. Then, I played on the swing and played hide-and-seek with my father. After that, I played ball games with my grandpa and played monkey bars with my sister.

When I ran around, I hurt my hand and my legs. It was painful. Lastly, I played on the balance beam. I felt joyful and excited.
