Days after Exam

Last Saturday after exam. I felt so happy, because my marks were better than last time. My father gave me a surprising gift.

First, I told my father, I wanted to have a new switch games Luigi's Mansion 3. We saw the game can sell to us is on 31st October. I discouraged said "we can't buy this game today, we need to buy it tomorrow."

Then, my father asked me did you know how to play. I said I didn't know, because I didn't play before and it didn't sell to us. My father said we can play it and felt is it a good game. Then my father took out the game from his bag. I felt very happy and surprised. I can't wait, I opened the game and played with my father.

At last, we played the game together, we thought this game was so fun and we needed to use our brains to complete the games.

I felt very surprised and happy this day, because we can buy this game and played with my father.

Days after Exam

The examinations finally finished! As I got good result in the examinations, my parents were surprised and glad. For celebrating I got good result, they decided to bring me to a hotel, and stay for a night. After discussed with me, we went to Gold Coast Hotel to stay a night on 24th November to 25th November.

When we set off to Gold Coast Hotel, I was excited. It's because I haven't gone there for about seven years. We went there by taxi, as the Gold Coast Hotel is in Tuen Mun, it is very far from the place where we live. When I got off the taxi, I was shocked, since it changed a lot and it has already become a luxurious hotel. The staff welcomed us warmly and the food was very nice. It was such a wonderful and memorable stay.

As we sow, so shall we reap. I will want harder to requite my parents.

Swimming Gala 2019

At 3rd October our school had a Swimming Gala. And of course I participated in it.

At the Swimming Gala, I sat with my (red house) classmates, I sat on the first row, we were having fun.

When I had to race, I felt nervous, I hoped that I could be at least second. At the end of the race, I was second or third at the freestyle race.

I had to race with breast stroke, I knew I was going to lose. But I got the fourth place in the end.

After some time, it was the cheerleading competition. I tried my best to follow, but I still missed some part.

At the award ceremony (I think), the principle announced which house won, I forgot which house won. I think the yellow house won the cheerleading competition.

After the Swimming Gala, Tiana and I went to have lunch together.

Even though red house lost, I hope that they can win next year.
