A Party I Want

Today is a good day because I had a party in a tree house at four o'clock. My friends and I had a buffet at the party. Do you know what a tree house is? It is a house on a big tree. It is incredible.

My parents brought me a big birthday cake. I lit the candles and put them on the cake. In the tree house, I also prepared some snacks for my friends. My friends sang the birthday song to me, it was so touching at that moment. I made a wish that I can study well and make progress every day. Soon after that, I cut the cake and shared it with my friend. After eating that cake, we decided to play the board game together. We divided into four groups, and finally David's group won the game. Mom gave him a mysterious gift.

In my birthday party, I have received a lot of gifts. My favourite gift is a Mickey model car that Brian gave me. Although the birthday party lasted for ninety minutes, we all felt happy. I love my friends and the food very much. I feel very happy with my friend and it is a good memory for me.

This is a dog party. It is held in a castle in summer. My friends can join this party because all of them have domestic dogs. Their dogs can play with my dog.

In the party, my friends and I go hiking with our dogs. We then eat cupcakes, brownies, fruit cakes and ice-cream. The dogs can eat their food. After lunch, we play some games which are hide-and-seek, ball games and Frisbee.

After the party, I give my friends a surprise. The surprise is that I give a white Shiba Inu to one of my friends. I feel very happy in this party because I can play with my friends.
