My rainy weekend

Scarlette came to my house to play on Thursday after school.

My mom took us to the cat café. We played with cats and also fed them. Some also took my seat for a nap! We ordered a cake with ice-cream. The food was delicious. We left at three o'clock.

Unluckily, the rain was becoming heavy. We were all wet when we got back to my house, so we decided to take a shower.

After the shower, we did our homework, but the rain was too heavy that we decided to let Scarlette sleep overnight at my house.

Next, we played some games and watched TV. At last, we ate dinner and went to bed.

The next day, we didn't need to go to school, so we made a pizza for breakfast and lunch.

In the afternoon, the rain stopped, so Scarlette's mom came to take her home.

My rainy weekend

It was really rainy this weekend. I couldn't go anywhere but only stayed in my house. It was quite boring.

I woke up very late. After breakfast, my dad went to my school to attend the Parent's Day. I had nothing to do, so I started reading books. A few hours later, I went to attend my piano class. I was all wet because the roof of the footpath was broken. The raindrops kept dropping on my head.

On the way home, the rain suddenly stopped. At home, my mum asked dad to bring my little brother for a walk. They didn't bring any umbrellas when they left home.

While I was writing this journal. I saw that it started raining again! "Dad and little brother must be all wet. They were really unlucky!" I thought. Soon, they came home. Ha! They were all wet. I couldn't stop laughing.

I had a really unforgettable weekend. But I wish the sun will come out and the broken roof can be fixed soon.

The umbrellas are arranged in a slightly irregular pattern, with some overlapping. The raindrops are scattered throughout, adding to the rainy theme.

Things that I like doing tirelessly

The first thing I like to do tirelessly is looking after my two rabbits, Choi Sum (Male) and Cream (Female). I bought them at the pet shop "Little Boss". They need to eat a lot, especially my large rabbit Choi Sum. They also need to have a walk in the house. I like playing with them and feed them. It's a hard work but I still enjoy it.

The second thing is reading books, such as Pokemon, Roald Dahl story books and Dav Pilkey Doy Man book series. Reading calms you down. You can also learn facts or looks at some funny pictures. If you want to learn a lot of brand-new English words, check out Harry Potter! It's awesome! That's also the reason I like reading books tirelessly!

My rainy weekend

This weekend is the worst I have ever experienced.

On Saturday, the cloud was really thick and it kept on raining. I learn English at the British Council with my cousin on Saturday mornings. Due to the heavy rain, my clothes and shoes had all got wet and I felt uncomfortable. I could only change clean clothes till I went home.

On the next day, I couldn't go out to play rugby either. Because of the heavy rain, the pitch became muddy.

I felt completely bored and sad because I could only spend most of my holiday sitting and staying at home. I hope the weather will be better soon.

Things that I like doing tirelessly

The first thing I like doing tirelessly is playing football. As I can finish my homework very fast, I have a lot of free time to play football. Furthermore, I call my friends to go to the football pitch with their parents because they do not rest assured. Mostly, we play football 3 on 3 or 5 on 5. We all enjoy to play together and are over the moon. We can also practise some skills to make us become stronger. My teammates and I always win because one of my teammates and me are among the best in our football group. One time, some naughty and very proud children wanted to beat us, so they invited us for a competition. They said triumphantly, 'We are going to be the winner.' Some friends in the football group were foam at the mouth and they begged me to play against them. Therefore, I had no choice but to play against them. Finally, I used my skills well and I won! My teammates and I were on cloud nine. From that time, they didn't come here again.

The second thing I like doing tirelessly is playing Mahjong. Mahjong is a very interesting and also one of the most wonderful games in the world as it gives me a lot of fun. I enjoy the feel that being a Mahjong master and win combination, such as pure hand, mix pure hand, triplets hand owing that it is easy to make. It only needs to claim a tile to match a triplet. I like "all kongs" and it has eighteen points. Therefore, I like it most and I wish I can do it more often. I am so hopeful for that!

My rainy weekend

Last weekend was very rainy. Rain was pouring everywhere. It was raining like cats and dogs.

It all started on Friday, even though it is a week day. When I woke up on Friday. I noticed that school was cancelled due to a Red Rainstorm Signal. I was happy because I didn't need to go to school. I went to the library and borrowed some books. I read some books and did a part of my book report, but I forgot to do my journal.

On Saturday, it was still raining so I stayed at home with my little brother. Later, Mom asked me to finish my remaining homework, so I read 2 e-books and did my e-book recording. I also sent my recording to my teacher. After finishing my homework, I continued to read some more books that I had borrowed on Friday but I still forgot to do my journal.

On Sunday, I went to Sky Rink in Sham Shui Po to play an ice hockey game. The weather was not good, and we brought a lot of equipment which was very messy.

My journal was overdue for two days, and I learnt an important lesson. I should mark down all the homework. (I thought I didn't need to do my journal. I totally forgot it!)

I think that this rainy weekend is great because I can go to the library and borrow some books.

Things that I like doing tirelessly

There are two things that I like doing tirelessly which are watching television and playing mobile games.

Nowadays, many different applications can be installed into television, such as YouTube, Netflix and Disney Plus. You can also surf the Internet. My favourite movie series is Marvels, but my favourite movie is the greatest showman. So, I can watch the television whole day without getting tired.

Apart from mobile phones, there are a few devices which enable us to play games too. For example, computer and iPads. My favourite game us Roblox, and there are different types of games. I usually play games on the computer or my mobile phone. I never get tired when I am playing mobile games.
