My staycation

My family went to a staycation in August. This staycation was to celebrate my birthday. The hotel was in Tsim Sha Tsui. It was very nice. I could see the beautiful Victoria Harbour. I think this is the best view in Hong Kong.

We had a high tea in the afternoon. The high tea was served in a stand with ham, cakes, sandwiches and tarts. Although the food was delicious, I really didn't like it at all.

At night, when I was playing in the room, all the lights turned off. I felt scared. I thought it was power cut. Then I saw my mum holding a big cake with a candle. Wow! What a surprise! I felt very happy and very touching.

Though we could not travel overseas, we were able to have a staycation. It's better than nothing.

An unforgettable event in the summer holiday

Last Friday, I went to Quarry Bay to play on the trampoline with my friends.

When we arrived there, we were very excited because it was my first time playing there. We ran to the trampoline and we kept jumping. After jumping, we went on a rope and held tightly. We landed on some foams. Then I went up and jumped down from the edge to the soft parts of the foams. I kept trying with some difficult posts. I flipped and rolled two times before landing. My friend and I playing on the trampoline again and we competed who could jump higher.

It was a happy but tired day. I had a great time.

A wonderful time

I went to summer camp with my friends and my family last Saturday. It was in Repulse Bay. We first unpacked our stuff. My aunt even bought a tent. Then we went to an inside playground afterwards. We went back to the house. In the evening, we met a new friend named Pauline. She is a nine-year-old girl from France. She lived in France for three years and six years in Hong Kong. She told me that it was very weird that we put honey on everything at BBQ. We talked and played together. She took good care of herself without any help.

The next day, we all went to the beach. We didn't know the way to the beach. But luckily, Pauline knew the way. She led us the way and we finally made it.

First, we changed into our swimming suits. Then we ran swimming and played the beach ball with our parents. I felt joyful.

After that, we went back to the house and had dinner together. It was memorable because I met a nice girl. Hope we can be friends forever.

A trip to Hong Kong Wetland Park

Last Wednesday, my friends Marcus, Shirin and I went to Hong Kong Wetland Park together. We took MTR to Tin Shui Wai station and interchanged Light Rail to Wetland Park station. After arriving, we played at a maze called "Eco-Maze".

At one o'clock, we had lunch at the café in the visitor center. After lunch, we went to Wetland Discovery Centre. There were a lot of fish, turtles and frogs in the tanks. Next, we went to "Riverside Hide". In January or February, birds will fly to there.

In the end, we went back to the visitor centre and watched a film called "Natural curiosities-Spinnes and Weavers". It's about how humans make use of spider webs.

I felt extremely unforgettable because this was my first time taking Light Rail. It made my dream come true.

A scary moment

Last Sunday, I went to the park with my dad and my little brother. The weather was sunny. I played tag with my brother. I played the monkey bars too. I was happy that it was my first time I finished playing all the bars. Guess what? My dad took photos for me.

At the same time, my brother wanted to play the slide. After playing, he could not find us. He cried and ran back to our flat's lobby. Luckily, the watchwoman recognized him and helped him call my mum. Meanwhile, dad and I kept finding him in the park and felt very anxious and worried. Suddenly, my dad's mobile rang. It was mum's calling. She told dad that my brother was at our flat's lobby. Finally, we found him.

Before this incident, I always felt my brother was a troublemaker. However, my brother's missing made me aware that he was very important to me and to our family. He is my playmate and growth buddy. My brother is part of our family. I love my brother.

An unforgettable movie night

Yesterday, mother and I watched a movie in the theatre of Hollywood Plaza. I felt fantastic.

First, we went to a restaurant to have lunch. After that, we went there on time. Actually, a month ago, we planned to watch "Peter Rabbit", but we missed it. I felt disappointed. Accidentally, we got a chance to watch it. When I was watching an excited moment in the movie, the chairs began to tremble. We felt thrilled.

It was unforgettable because I luckily could go and watch one of my favourite movies.

I was extremely delighted. I also learnt that don't insist too much on what we wanted. Take it easy, some day, chances will come.

My staycation

After two years, I visited the hotel again. My parents brought me to Tung Chung Novotel Citygate Hotel for two nights. Yeah!

We've visited Ngong Ping 360 cable car. This is the first time for me. I was thrilled. I wanted to take the crystal cabin, but we didn't. It's because my dad was afraid of heights. On the way to Ngong Ping village, we took photos and chatted happily. We even walked to the Big Buddha. Unfortunately, the Big Buddha was under renovation, but we still enjoyed the ride.

In these three days, we went shopping, played board games in our room and we had different food that was made me feel like travelling to another country.

I hope COVID-19 can pass soon. Everything can be back to normal. Next year, we can travel around with my parents hopefully.
