Chinese New Year

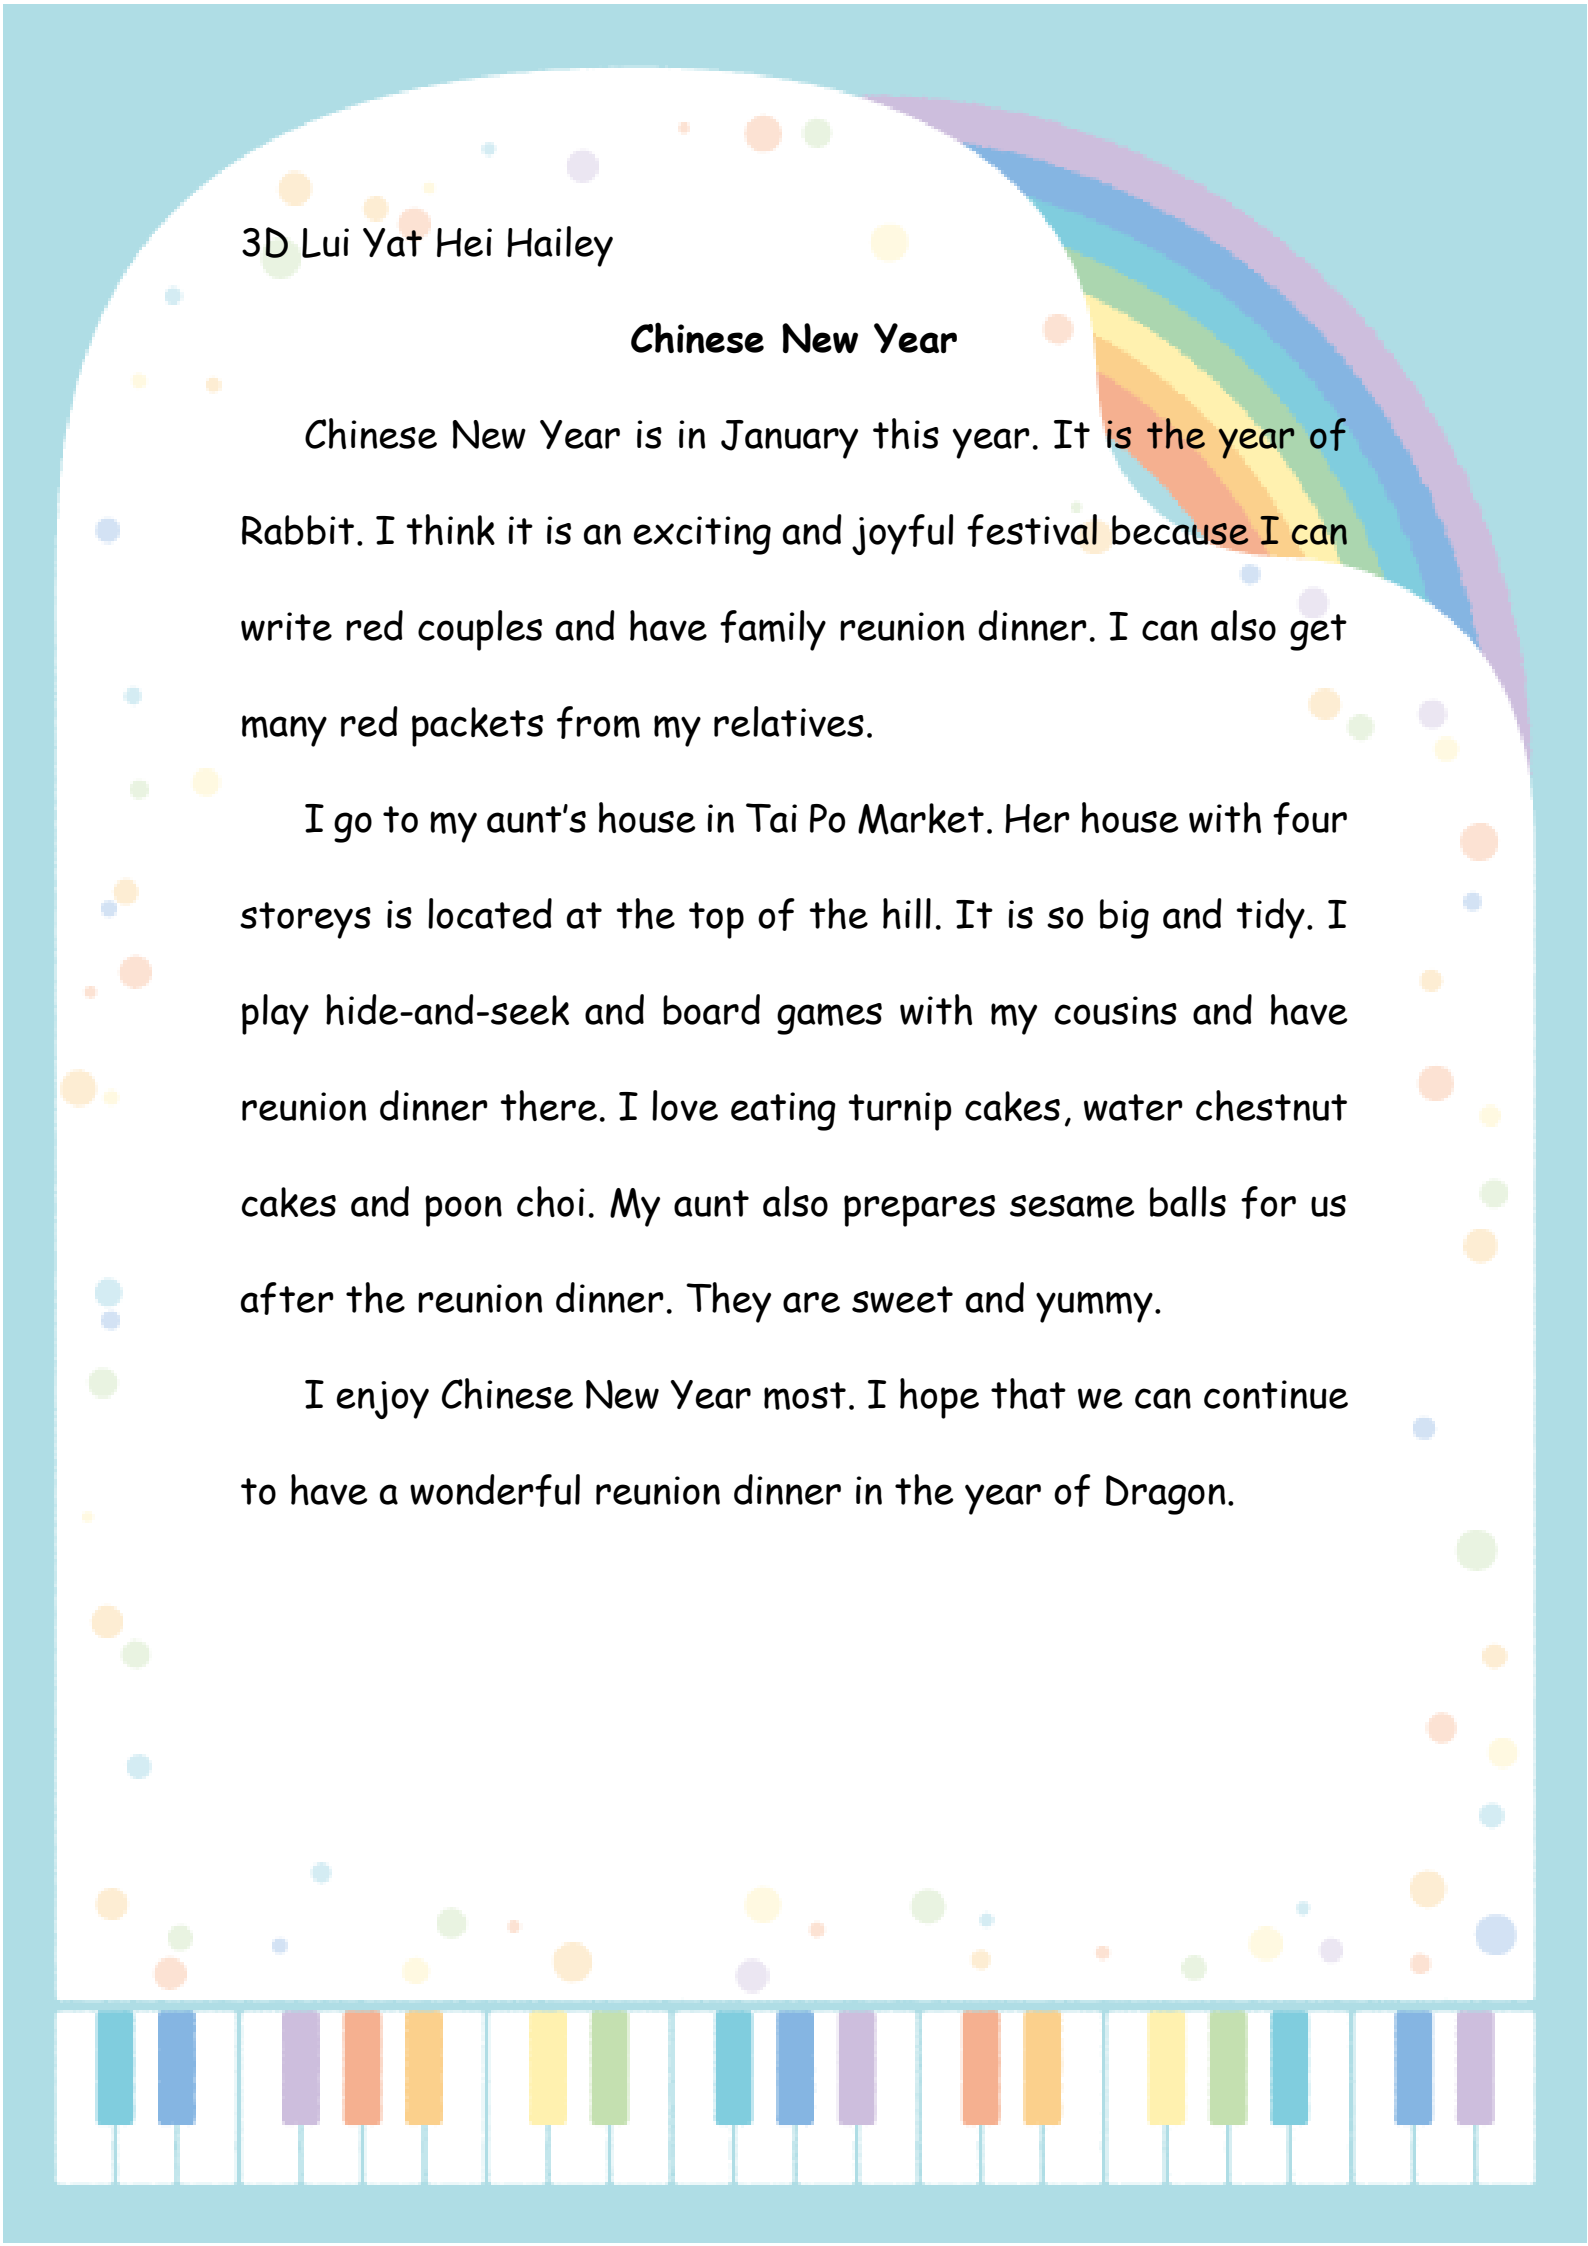

Chinese New Year is one of the most important festivals for people in Hong Kong. I had a happy holiday with my parents, relatives and friends.

On the first and the second day of the Chinese New Year, my parents and I went to visit my grandparents. I served them tea and sent greetings to them. They gave some red packets to me happily. When my aunt, uncle and cousin came, we played Switch together. Then, we enjoyed a fancy dinner with fish maw, abalone, chicken, roasted suckling pig, etc. Finally, we ate ice-cream after dinner.

On 24th January, my parents took me to Lam Tsuen Wishing Tree at Tai Po. I felt excited to take the bus 63R. I sat on the first row of the upper deck because I am a bus fan. I bought two "Bao Die" at Lam Tsuen. First, I wrote some wishes on the red wishing card and tied the plastic orange with a ribbon on it. Then, I tried to throw. Finally, I did it. Besides, my mother bought two Chinese New Year wooden ornaments for daddy and me.

On 25th January, we had a gathering with our friends at a barbecue site in Yuen Long. I ate some chicken wings, siu mai and sausages. Then, I played trampoline with my friends. It was fun! Finally, we went home by bus 268C.

What a fun Chinese New Year! I like it very much.
