Our School Picnic

15th November, 2023 is a special day because it is my first school picnic in LHT Primary School. I go to Pak Tam Chung Holiday Camp with my class teachers and classmates.

I do a lot of things there. I play hide-and-seek in the garden with my friends. I bring a water bottle, some snacks and sushi.

I feel very happy but scared because I see some Red Imported Fire Ants and bees.

Our School Picnic

15th November, 2023 is a special day because it is my first school picnic in LHT Primary School. I go to the Pak Tam Chung Holiday Camp with my class teachers and classmates. The weather is sunny and hot.

After an hour, we arrive at the campsite. Then, we have a picnic lunch in the afternoon. I bring some biscuits, sandwiches and snacks to share with my friends.

After that, we play games and play hide-and-seek together.

Although I got sick after the school picnic, I still feel happy and look forward to our next trip.

Our School Picnic

Hello! My first school picnic at the primary school is on the fifteenth of November. I go to Pak Tam Chung Holiday Camp with Miss Yellow, Miss Choi and my lovely classmates. We go there by school bus. The weather is sunny and cool. I do a lot of things there, such as making handicraft, eating snacks and taking photos. My dad prepares ham sandwiches for me but I don't eat them because I eat a whole packet of potato chips that makes me very full. I feel sorry. My dad looks upset and says to me, 'You should eat them for your lunch!' He is angry and disappointed with me.

It is a joyful day. I feel excited and relaxed.

My Mother

Hello! This is my mother. Her name is Lisa. She is tall and she wears glasses.

She likes watching YouTube and Facebook Live.

Her favourite colour is blue because she likes the seas in Jeju and Santorini. She likes cats because they are cute and fluffy.

I like her because she is always kind, but sometimes I don't like her because she pushes me to do a lot of extra exercise.
