Christmas is my favorite festival, because I can receive many gifts. I go shopping with my family in Tsim Sha Tsui, and I see many beautiful Christmas decorations there. I don't believe the Christmas gifts are given by Santa Claus because they are given to me by my mom and dad.

Chinese New Year

My favorite festival is Chinese New Year. Every year, my family and I tidy up our house before Chinese New Year. I have a great time during the Chinese New Year holiday. I visit my relatives as a yearly tradition. I enjoy eating traditional Chinese dishes, including sticky rice cake, dumplings, and fried meatballs. I like eating dumplings the most. This year, I got many red packets from my grandparents, uncles, and aunts. I will treasure the red packet money and use some to buy new books. My New Year's wish this year is to get better grades in school and learn how to ride a bicycle. I will work hard in the coming year to achieve my goals.

I go to the Prince Edward Flower Market to buy Chinese New Year flowers with my family. I help to put candies in traditional Chinese candy boxes. I have dinner with my family on Chinese New Year's Eve. I go to see fireworks on the second day of Chinese New Year. I go to relatives' homes for New Year greetings and say "Kung Hei Fat Choi" to them and get red pockets.

Chinese New Year

I cleaned my house, bought flowers and festive food before Chinese New Year. On the first day of Chinese New Year, my mom and dad gave me red packets. They wished me to have a great body and get good grades in my studies. On the second day, we went to my grandparents' house with my dad's family members. We have hotpot. They give lots of red packets. I will spend the money in my bank account when I am 18 years old.
